

SIX CANDIDATES ASK MEXICAN PRESIDENCY

Some Are Hostile to U. S. and Others
Are Known to Be Friendly—Warrior
Race Is Now Assured

CARRANZA IS INELIGIBLE

Can Not Run at Next Election—Successor Takes Office in December of Next Year.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Six candidates are in the field for the presidency of Mexico at the election in July, 1920, despite President Carranza's request that no candidate be put aside for the present, because Mexico City residents have today said. The successful candidate will take office December 1, after Carranza's term expires. Carranza himself is ineligible for reelection under the constitution but two members of his cabinet are candidates. Plutarco Calles, in Mexico divides the candidate into two classes, civil and military, with the latter said to be more popular. The candidates already in the field either personally or through their friends are: Aguirre, former governor of Coahuila and former ally of Carranza; Alvarado, former ally of Carranza; Calles, former ally of Carranza; Carranza, former ally of Carranza; Carranza, former ally of Carranza; Carranza, former ally of Carranza.

General Alvarado is known principally for his administration of Yucatan, where he put state socialism into operation. He is the most ardent supporter of Carranza of the three military men named. Luis Calles and Aguirre are known for their loyalty to the Carranza cabinet who are equally candidates for the presidency. Carranza, who was the president of Mexico from 1914 to 1918, is now in exile in Mexico City. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

Calles is a supporter of the Carranza cabinet and is known to be friendly to the United States. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

Calles is a supporter of the Carranza cabinet and is known to be friendly to the United States. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

MALESTER CHEERS OWEN AS PRESIDENT CANDIDATE

MALESTER, Tex., April 18.—Following the opening of the voting booth today in this city with an address by Owen, Malester, Tex., and the cheering and shouting of the crowd, Owen was named as the democratic candidate for the presidency. That is a popular nomination was given to the unanimous and hearty approval of Owen. Owen is a native of Malester, Tex., and is known to be friendly to the United States. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

President Owen's address was a success. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

GERMANS MAY SEND TROOPS TO MUNICH

Government Considers Action to Aid in Relief of Bavarian Capital From Communist Forces.

MUNICH, Wednesday, April 18.—The German national government is considering seriously the sending of German troops to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although the government has not yet decided to do so.

The government is considering the sending of German troops to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although the government has not yet decided to do so.

MALESTER CHEERS OWEN AS PRESIDENT CANDIDATE

MALESTER, Tex., April 18.—Following the opening of the voting booth today in this city with an address by Owen, Malester, Tex., and the cheering and shouting of the crowd, Owen was named as the democratic candidate for the presidency. That is a popular nomination was given to the unanimous and hearty approval of Owen. Owen is a native of Malester, Tex., and is known to be friendly to the United States. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

President Owen's address was a success. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

Germany is now in a state of confusion. The government is considering the sending of German troops to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although the government has not yet decided to do so.

The government is considering the sending of German troops to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although the government has not yet decided to do so.

The government is considering the sending of German troops to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although the government has not yet decided to do so.

MALESTER CHEERS OWEN AS PRESIDENT CANDIDATE

MALESTER, Tex., April 18.—Following the opening of the voting booth today in this city with an address by Owen, Malester, Tex., and the cheering and shouting of the crowd, Owen was named as the democratic candidate for the presidency. That is a popular nomination was given to the unanimous and hearty approval of Owen. Owen is a native of Malester, Tex., and is known to be friendly to the United States. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

President Owen's address was a success. He is known to be friendly to the United States and is known to be friendly to the United States.

PRODUCERS SUPPLY COMPANY

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT Of Interest to All Producers and Contractors

Owing to our connections with eastern manufacturers we are enabled to furnish all sizes of pipe at revised prices, direct from the mill. We also carry a large stock of second-hand pipe and casing, from 1-inch to 15 1/2-inch at attractive prices.

We make a specialty of casing nipples. We also carry a complete stock of oil field fittings, pumping outfits, Jones and Oklahoma jacks, boilers, powers, steam engines, drilling tools, "Kling-tile" and "Never Slip," absolutely guaranteed, friction belts, pull rods, sucker rods, tubing, line pipe, fire brick and other supplies.

We extend our sincere thanks for your patronage in the past and hope to merit the same consideration in the future.

"WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK"

Our Price of Fire Bricks
5 Cents Each

Producers Supply Company

Elgin and Archer Streets

SAM MILLER, General Manager

Office Phone 210

Store Phone 1381

Important to Plumbers and Contractors

We are prepared to furnish all sizes of fittings, black and galvanized, also black and galvanized pipe from 3/4-inch to 4-inch, in any desired quantity, at revised prices, owing to our direct connections with eastern manufacturers. We also carry in stock all sizes of line pipe. Special size nipples cut to your order. We are satisfied that a comparison of prices will result in our securing the business.

WE EXTEND OUR SINCERE THANKS FOR YOUR PATRONAGE IN THE PAST AND HOPE TO MERIT THE SAME CONSIDERATION IN FUTURE

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION OR
YOUR MONEY BACK

PRODUCERS SUPPLY COMPANY

ELGIN AND ARCHER STREETS

SAM MILLER, General Manager

Office Phone 210

Store Phone 1381

The Ham for Easter— Armour's STAR With the Stockinet Covering

LET one of your Easter joys be a breakfast of Star Ham—rich, sweet, tender and juicy. No longer need war deprive you of this staple delicacy—for years the popular Easter dish in countless American homes.

Only the choicest hams are good enough to bear the brand of Star. And the famous flavor imparted by the Armour cure is conserved and intensified by smoking in the Stockinet Covering. Whether your purchase be a whole ham or a few slices—whether you fry, boil, bake or broil—you can assure highest food enjoyment by asking your dealer for Armour's Star, "The Ham What Am."

Ask him, too, for Armour's Star Bacon. It is of the same high quality as the ham—selected with the same care, perfected by the same cure, marked with the same Armour Oval Label—symbol of highest food worth—your safe buying guide.

The Armour Oval Label identifies a big variety of Package Foods, including soups, meats, fish, fruits, vegetables, condiments, seasonings, cooking fats, spreads, beverages, etc.

Your dealer can supply you with Star Ham and Bacon and other Armour Oval Label leaders.

ARMOUR AND COMPANY

H. M. McKay,
MANAGER TULSA BRANCH HOUSE,
Telephones 195-859.

